

Life in the Rainforest

Fact Sheet

Stick Insects

Stick insects have an incomplete lifecycle; they do not have a pupae stage.

Most stick insects use camouflage to hide from predators.

Stick insects eat plants, so they do not have to hunt for their food; they usually have very poor eyesight.

Prickly Stick insect.

Jungle Nymph.

Titan Stick insect.

Leaf insect.

